Our search to find the Biggest Little Cricket Club

Your club could be rewarded with a make-over

Make sure your club is registered for CricketForce and they could win our Biggest Little Cricket Club competition. The top prize is a visit from a team of specialists who'll use their talents to help make a huge difference to the club on our NatWest CricketForce weekend on Sunday 1 April 2012.

The team includes:

- Former England Captain Michael Vaughan
- ECB Pitch Consultant Chris Wood
- Professional tradesmen
- NatWest staff to help throughout the day

The 4 runners-up will each receive a piece of merchandise signed by a member of the England team.

The competition is split into 2 stages:

Stage 1 - The Public Vote

Fans can vote online to earn their NatWest CricketForce club points to help them become top of the leaderboard. Voting ends 9am Friday, 23 March 2012. To support your local club visit natwest.com/cricket

Stage 2 - Judging Panel

When voting ends, the top 5 clubs will then be asked to submit 200 words as to why their club deserves to win by 5pm Monday, 26 March 2012. The judging panel will review and then decide on the winner of the top prize.

Helping communities improve their local cricket clubs

NatWest CricketForce has been running for over 10 years and aims to help clubs get ready for the new season by encouraging club members, volunteers, families and tradesmen to rejuvenate club facilities.

Last year we saw over 1,900 clubs taking part, bringing together local clubs and communities, including hundreds of NatWest staff members helping out.

How you can get involved:

- If you're a member of a cricket club, register your club for NatWest CricketForce. Latest date for registration is 27 March 2012
- Register yourself as a NatWest CricketForce volunteer. Go online and use our Club Locator tool to search for registered NatWest CricketForce clubs in your area

Be part of the Club

The NatWest Cricket Club was launched last year to bring together cricket fans across the country, with an aim to generate £20m worth of additional support for the grassroots game through a combination of volunteering, fundraising and contributions from local businesses and communities.

Membership of the Club is free and by signing up you'll be able to access all of the great benefits only available to our members. Members will receive regular emails about our exclusive member-only prize draws for over 4,000 tickets to NatWest Series ODI and International T20 matches, partner offers, latest interviews from players and much more!

NatWest current account customers will have the chance to win money can't buy experiences, such as a training session with the England cricket team this year!

How you can get involved:

- Sign up online today and you could benefit from a range of rewards throughout the summer from NatWest Series ODI and International T20 tickets through to exclusive cricketing experiences
